About

Ishasha Pride Lodge

Ishasha Pride Lodge is adjacent to the southwestern part of Queen Elizabeth National Park which is a well-liked park but also the most traveled national park within Uganda and is famous mainly for tree-climbing lions.

Our lodge is perfect for anyone who finds joy in the wilderness. We provide exclusive options of accommodation ranging from Camping, and executive cottages, as well as pitching one's own tent.

We are located in Kanungu district next to Ntungwe river. In this area, you will also come across huge buffalo herds and numerous antelopes that keep crossing your path. The area is famous for the tree-climbing lions and these may be seen during the game drive. There are also elephants that have actually settled within the Ishasha area and hippos too are common in this area. Being next to the park, the wildlife is free to pass through the lodge. Elephants can be seen bathing in the river, buffalo enjoy grazing, and resident troops of the Black-and-White Colobus and vervet monkeys are frequently seen. The lodge is surrounded by riparian forest vegetation and acacias Savannah

Guest

Accommodation and rates

Our location next to the park gives guests an opportunity to experience scenic views of Isha-sha from their private balconies and camp space. Each guest can see Ntungwe River, and enjoy the fresh air from the riverine forest. Each camping tent has a veranda with seats for our guests to enjoy the scenery.

All our cottages are furnished with mosquito-netted beds, all rooms are en suite with hot and cold showers, running water for hand-basins and a flushing toilet.

Each of our accommodation facilities will get you to experience peace and harmony while in touch with nature.
